Every Rose

Every rose is an island,
Of the promised peace,
Eternal peace.

In every rose there lives,
A bird of sapphire,
Whose name is "Ve'Chittetu," *

And it appears,
So near is
The rose's light,
So near is
Its fragrance,
So near is
The silence of the leaves,
So near is
That island -
Get a boat
And cross the sea of fire.
